Charlie Yates Golf Course

Voted one of the top 10 short courses in America for 2006 by Golf Range Magazine, This outstanding executive course (par 3's & 4's) was designed by noted architect Rees Jones while he was updating the original East Lake Golf Club. Bentgrass greens, Bermuda fairways and a rolling terrain offers challenging and fun golf.

"It's a great course to learn the game, yet challenging enough for better golfers to use every club in the bag for a quick round of golf," says head pro Daryl Batey.

This event is held in memory of

ABE MASSAR

Abe Masser, a member of Lutheran Church of the Redeemer and an avid golfer, exemplified positive aging. The last tournament in which he played he was 89 years old.

for closest to the hole, longest drive, lowest score (individual & foursome)
and the oldest and youngest players.

There are separate prizes for men and women.

WHY PLAY?

- Support the Center
- Be like Abe Massar and play golf until you're 89+
- Contributions are Tax Deductible
- Top Notch Golf Course

What better way to spend Columbus Day than on the golf course?
